

Curriculum Vitae: Professor Nick Buck

Full Name: Nicholas Hedley Buck

Date of Birth: 3rd September 1953

Contact: nhb@essex.ac.uk , 01206 873066

Education:

B.A. (Hons) Sociology and Economics, University of Kent at Canterbury (1975)

PhD Urban Studies, University of Kent at Canterbury (1980)

Current Positions:

Deputy Director, Institute for Social and Economic Research, University of Essex

Director, ESRC UK Longitudinal Studies Centre,

Principal Investigator, British Household Panel Survey

Employment:

1980-1981 Research Associate, Urban and Regional Studies Unit, University of Kent

1982 Research Assistant, Personal Social Services Research Unit, University of Kent

1982-1989 Research Fellow, Urban and Regional Studies Unit, University of Kent

1989-date Chief Research Officer (1989-1994), Principal Research Officer and Associate

Director (1994-1999), Professor and Associate/Deputy Director (1999-) ESRC

Research Centre on Micro-Social Change (Institute for Social and Economic Research from 1998), University of Essex.

Selected other appointments:

Board Member, Research Committee on Committee on Urban and Regional Development, International Sociological Association (1994-2002).

Fellow of the Royal Statistical Society, (Social Statistics section committee 1996-1999)

Member of Steering Committee of the South African National Income Dynamics Study (2006-)

Member Panel Study of Income Dynamics Board of Overseers (2007-2012)

Member, Birth Cohorts Studies Steering Committee (2004-)

Member of international evaluation panel for the Swiss Household Panel, invited by Swiss National Science Foundation (2005-2006)

Selected recent publications:

N. Buck, I.R. Gordon, A. Harding, I. Turok Changing Cities: rethinking urban competitiveness, cohesion and governance, Palgrave, Basingstoke, 2005

N. Buck, I.R. Gordon 'Does spatial concentration of deprivation contribute to social exclusion?' in M. Boddy and M. Parkinson (eds.) City Matters, Policy Press, Bristol, 2004

Nicoletti C, Buck N 'Explaining Interviewee Contact and Co-operation in the British and German Household Panels' in M Ehling & U Rendtel (ed.s), Harmonisation of Panel Surveys and Data Quality, pp 143-167. Wiesbaden: German Federal Statistical Office, 2004.

Buck N 'Item Non-response in the ECHP' in M Ehling & U Rendtel (ed.s), Harmonisation of Panel Surveys and Data Quality, pp 143-167. Wiesbaden: German Federal Statistical Office, 2004.

Lynn P, N. Buck, J.Burton, H. Laurie (2003) (ed.) Quality Profile: British Household Panel Survey Waves 1 – 10. Colchester: University of Essex.

<http://www.iser.essex.ac.uk/ulsc/bhps/quality-profiles/BHPS-QP-16-4-03-v3.pdf>.

N. Buck, I.R. Gordon, P. Hall, M. Harloe, M. Kleinman Working Capital: Life and Labour in Contemporary London Routledge, London, 2002

N. Buck 'Identifying Neighbourhood Effects on Social Exclusion' Urban Studies, 38, 2251-2275, 2001.

N. Buck, I.R. Gordon 'Turbulence and Sedimentation in the Labour Markets of Late Twentieth Century Metropolises', in G. Bridge and S. Watson (eds.) A Companion to the City, Blackwell, 2000.

N. Buck 'Housing, Location and Residential Mobility' in R. Berthoud and J. Gershuny (eds.) Seven Years in the Lives of British Families, Policy press, 2000.

N. Buck 'Using panel surveys to study migration and residential mobility' in D. Rose (ed.) Researching Social Change, UCL Press, 2000.

N. Buck, J. Ermisch, and S. Jenkins 'Choosing a longitudinal survey design: the issues' Occasional Papers of the ERSC Research Centre on Micro-Social Change. Occasional Paper 96-1, Colchester: University of Essex, 1996.

Recent relevant conference Papers:

N. Buck 'Panel Data Analysis: Challenges and Opportunities' 2nd International Conference of

Panel Data Users in Switzerland, February 2005

N. Buck 'What can NIDS learn from the British Household Panel Survey?', Paper for the Expert

Panel Meeting, Pretoria 5 December 2005

N. Buck 'General Household Panel Studies: The British Household Panel Survey' Paper for the

Conference on Longitudinal Surveys in International Perspective, Montreal, 25-27 January 2006

Selected research grants:

Leverhulme: Unemployment and Technical and Structural Change, 1996-2001, £875,000, with

Ken Burdett, Alison Booth, Tim Hatton, Stephen Jenkins, (Essex)

ESRC: Does Spatial Concentration of Disadvantage Contribute to Social Exclusion?, 1998-2000, £77,000 with Ian Gordon (Reading).

ESRC: London: Economic Competitiveness, Social Cohesion and the Policy Environment, 1997-2000, £350,000, with Ian Gordon (Reading), Michael Harloe (Essex), Peter Hall (UCL), Mark Kleinman (LSE).

ESRC: Centre for the Longitudinal Analysis of Social Policy, 1999-2004, £2,496,500, with Jonathan Gershuny, Richard Berthoud, John Ermisch, Stephen Jenkins, David Rose

ESRC: UK Longitudinal Studies Centre 1999-2004 £9,788,000

EU: CHINTEX (Change from input-harmonisation to ex-post harmonisation in the European Community Household Panel Study) 2000-2003 €97,000

ESRC: UK Longitudinal Studies Centre 2004-2009 £13,549,000

ESRC: UK Households Longitudinal Study 2007-2012 £15,250,000